LITHOS

LITHOS

design Paolo Pampanoni

To rediscover the purity of material, to place the accent on the beauty of the surfaces, to understand that there is no need for superfluous things.

The frame is the expression of building.

Order comes first: each single thing has a specific role and deserves a proper place according to its nature. Each of us is a part of this order, this is the reason why we can only conceive ideas that have harmonious consequences.

The reality of objects suggests the truth of reality.

A comfortable place will never be a common place for us, because comfort itself is a value, therefore it is absolutely necessary.

Style improves over time: we constantly search for the right mix of experience, exactness and knowledge.

A presidential collection which brings together elegance and practicality.
